

HUERTA AGREES
TO SALUTE FLAGMexican President Yields to American Demands.

RELIEVES TENSE SITUATION

United States Warships Will Return Courtesy.

Washington, April 17.—The United States government has accepted General Huerta's offer to salute the Stars and Stripes as an apology for the arrest of American bluejackets at Tampico a week ago. The Huerta government's salute to the American flag will be answered with a salute to the tri-color of the Mexican nation.

This arrangement, the details of which are being finally arranged in an exchange of official messages between Washington and Mexico City, ended, in the view of all high administration officials, the crisis that had arisen in the last few days resulting in the dispatch of American war fleets to Mexican waters. Executive quarters and congressional circles breathed a sigh of relief that the tension had passed.

No time has been set for the firing of the salute. Huerta's request for a return salute caused President Wilson to ask for an opinion from the counselor of the state department and navy department officials. All reported that it was the invariable custom in naval practice. The president also was informed that Rear Admiral Mayo, on making his original demand for a salute, agreed to return the courtesy.

Disappears Tense Situation.

Precedents in which the United States returned the salute of other nations who apologized to it were cited at the White House and navy department and it was generally agreed in executive quarters that General Huerta's compliance with the American demand had dissipated a tense situation. No orders to the American fleet to change its course will be given until the final details of the salute have been arranged.

As the storm clouds lifted and a wave of satisfaction spread over official quarters President Wilson arranged to go to White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., for the week end and Secretary Bryan, who is ill, planned to take his long delayed trip to Miami, Fla.

While the president declared the firing of the salute would close the Tampico incident it will have no particular bearing on the general Mexican policy of the administration. Other offenses, such as the arrest of a mail orderly at Vera Cruz, have been apologized for and the United States will continue its position of neutrality as between the two factions contending for the military supremacy of the Southern republic.

Return Salute Is Proper.

Huerta's offer was received in congress generally with approval and members familiar with the international precedents agreed that a return salute from American guns could not be regarded as recognition of the Huerta regime or in any wise as beneath the dignity of the United States.

Another phase of the situation was a well authenticated report that the last installment of a loan due Huerta was about to be held up by foreign bankers if he did not comply with the American demands.

Senor Riano, the Spanish ambassador, who was among Secretary Bryan's callers, again pressed the claims for redress of the 700 Spanish subjects expelled by General Villa from Torreón. The Madrid government is not satisfied merely with a promise that future claims of Spanish subjects may be made through the United States. It wants a safe return of the Spanish exiles now at El Paso to their former homes in Torreón.

John Lind, President Wilson's personal representative in Mexico, took an active part in the developments, being in consultation with Secretary Bryan.

FIGHT TO DEATH MAY RESULT

Running Gun Battle Occurs on the Streets of Escanaba Between Two Men Suspected of Numerous Railway Station Robberies—Fugitives Are Hiding in Swamp and Are Said to Be Heavily Armed.

Escanaba, Mich., April 17.—After a running gun battle through the streets of Escanaba two men suspected of numerous robberies of Soo stations, are surrounded in a swamp near here by Sheriff Curran, Chief of Police Iverson and an armed posse.

It is believed that the bandits will not be captured alive. They are said to be heavily armed and well supplied with ammunition. They are Joe Parent and Clyde Smith.

The search for the robbers has been on since they began their reign of terror in this section several weeks ago. Chief Iverson saw Parent pass marked money in a saloon and placed him under arrest. As he was leading the prisoner out the door Smith, a one-armed man, stepped up, drew a 44-caliber revolver and backed the chief against the wall. Parent fled. Smith made a quick dodge and followed.

Iverson followed, firing at the fleeing men. Smith returned the volley. The desperados ran into a hotel, where Parent roomed, the chief close on the trail and firing as he ran. Parent rushed to his room, obtained a revolver and returned to aid Smith. More than fifty shots were exchanged in the hallway and rooms of the hotel.

The chief attempted to summon aid among the panic stricken occupants and the men took the opportunity for a new escape. They leaped from second story windows and started down an alley with the chief in pursuit.

Holds Up Terrified Citizens.

The bandits dashed for the lumber yards, holding up terrified citizens on the way and threatening death to all who interfered. They were given a wide berth. In a twinkling streets were cleared and doors were barricaded.

Other members of the police force joined the chief in the chase through the alley and as the men clambered over the lumber piles volley after volley was poured after them.

Sheriff Curran, on learning of the battle, hastily gathered 100 citizens, armed them and the posse rushed to the tamarack swamp in automobiles. The fight continued through the dense thicket as the pursuers caught sight of the bandits dodging behind trees.

A cordon of armed men was thrown about the swamp, cutting off every means of escape.

A search of Parent's room at the hotel revealed numerous knives, revolvers and black masks. Bloodstains in the hallway indicate some of the shots took effect. Their alleged crimes have extended over a period of weeks. The North Escanaba Soo line agent was held up three times within two weeks by two men answering the description of Parent and Smith. They obtained $35 one time, $87 the second time and $37 the third time. The most recent holdup was last Friday at Gladstone, six miles from Escanaba, when the station agent was relieved of $700.

PROFIT IN STATE INSURANCE

Wisconsin Can Pay Normal School Fire Loss From Surplus.

Madison, Wis., April 17.—The insurance commissioner's report on the state insurance fund, just issued, is of special interest, in view of the recent Superior normal school fire. A surplus is shown in the fund over liabilities for unearned premiums, and for the transfer from the general fund, at the beginning of the year, of $103,999.49, and a premium income for the last year of $69,607.84. The total assets of the fund at the end of last year were $216,851.40; the total losses of the past year were $5,728.21 and the total expenses, $1,738.94.

As the total insurance on the Superior normal school is $94,500 it appears that this can be paid from the surplus in the fund.

Twenty-two counties have elected to take their insurance under the fund, and fifty cities and villages and school districts are contemplating placing their insurance in the fund. Some already have taken this action.

WEDDING IS POSTPONED

Astor-Huntington Ceremony Will Not Occur April 30.

New York, April 17.—Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Huntington of Staatsburg announced that the wedding of their daughter, Miss Helen Dinsmore Huntington, and Vincent Astor is postponed indefinitely. No invitations will be sent out until after Mr. Astor, who is at the Huntington home, has fully recovered from his illness. The wedding had been set for April 30.

The physicians attending Mr. Astor announced that they believed he had passed the crisis. He is still very ill, however, and every precaution is being taken to prevent complications. Dr. Herrikan of Staatsburg continues to spend each night at the bedside.

WOMAN SECURES NEW TRIAL

Supreme Court Finds Error in Mrs. Wakefield's Case.

Hartford, Conn., April 17.—Ruling that a part of the evidence given by Coroner Mix in her trial should have been excluded the supreme court found error in the conviction of Mrs. Bessie J. Wakefield of murder in the first degree and ordered a new trial for the woman.

Mrs. Wakefield was found guilty Oct. 31, 1913. Her trial had followed that of James Plew, who was put to death for the crime on March 4 at the state prison at Wethersfield.

Mrs. Wakefield and Plew were charged with having killed the woman's husband at the Wakefields' home in Bristol. Plew, a farmhand, was a frequent caller at the Wakefield home.

When the Smiths Struck Fire.

Senator Smith of Georgia was on the floor making a talk about something and Senator Smith of Michigan wanted to interrupt him. "I do not yield to the senator from Michigan," declared the Georgia Smith. "He always wants to make a speech and not to ask a question when he interrupts." Even with this sharp rejoinder the Michigan Smith continued to insist upon his interruption, and his persistence won.

Not a Mind Reader.

The vice president continues to delight people in the gallery—much more than he does the senators—with his quaint expressions.

"I ask the chair," said Senator Bristow of Kansas one day with some indignation, "what the senator from Georgia intends to do." And the Kansas man glared through his glasses at Senator Hoke Smith.

"The chair cannot say," mildly said the vice president. "The chair is not a mind reader."

But They Don't Mingle.

"When the Gambia dike was destroyed and the waters of the Atlantic and Pacific mingled together," began Congressman Sherley of Kentucky in a speech on the Panama canal tolls. But they do not mingle. Before they could mingle the waters of either ocean would have to run up or be pumped up about eighty-five feet and pass three different locks. Still as a figure of speech, it may do to speak of the waters "mingling."

CHILD LABOR LAW
TO BE ENACTEDDetermined Effort on Foot to Force Consideration of Bill.

MEASURE WILL BE DRASTIC

Pressure Brought to Bear on Congress by Various Organizations—Small Cities Frequently More Fortunate Than Larger Ones—Lawmakers Are Embarrassed by Lobbyists.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, April 17.—[Special.]—Another determined effort is going to be made to put through a national child labor law which will prohibit interstate transportation of goods made by the labor of children under the specified age, probably sixteen years. There has been a number of meetings held recently in Washington having for their object the organization of men and women to bring pressure to bear upon congress to pass this legislation.

There was a time when Senator Beveridge was the most active advocate of such legislation, but since he retired from the senate little or nothing has been done, although quite a number of bills have been introduced. It is said that the matter is going to be put up to Democratic leaders in such a way as to compel action. It is hard to compel action, but there is likely to be considerable agitation of the subject at an early day.

What Small Cities Escape.

Sometimes it is pleasant to be a small city or town rather than one of the big commercial centers. Of course if a city is big enough to be one of the twelve selected for the federal reserve banks or big enough to have one of the big baseball leagues then there is no complaint. But when cities are almost big enough to have these banks and almost big enough to have big league teams and when other cities get these luxuries then there are heartburnings, disappointments and all sorts of trouble.

In a Precarious Condition.

Senator Brandegee of Connecticut was telling a group of friends the other day that it is hard for senators and representatives to vote on the canal proposition without being called the tools of the transcontinental railroads or the tools of the coastwise shipping trust. It reminded him of a case around a state legislature several years ago when a lobbyist favoring a certain bill went to a member of the legislature and offered him $500 to vote for the bill. The member was indignant and threatened to kick the lobbyist downstairs and otherwise do him bodily harm. He turned the corner and met another lobbyist who offered him $1,000 to vote against the bill. This the member indignantly spurned and said that he was now in a fix because if he voted for the bill it would be claimed he was paid to do so, and if he voted against it the same thing would be claimed, and he determined then and there not to vote at all. Then he met another man who offered him $1,500 if he would refrain from voting. "They had him in a corner anyway they could fix it," said Brandegee, "and that is about the way it is on this repeal bill."

Nothing More to Know.

Senator Chamberlain of Oregon wanted to read something into the Record in regard to the Monroe doctrine and Senator Williams of Mississippi objected. "If that article contains any new information about the growth of the Monroe doctrine it is false information," declared Williams. "The old information is correct and everybody knows about it." However that may be, Chamberlain had his article published in the Record just the same.

When the Smiths Struck Fire.

Senator Smith of Georgia was on the floor making a talk about something and Senator Smith of Michigan wanted to interrupt him. "I do not yield to the senator from Michigan," declared the Georgia Smith. "He always wants to make a speech and not to ask a question when he interrupts." Even with this sharp rejoinder the Michigan Smith continued to insist upon his interruption, and his persistence won.

"General" Coxey's "Army" Dwindles to About a Score.

Canton, O., April 17.—"General" Jacob S. Coxey's "army of unemployed" dwindled from 200 to a score of privates camped here preparatory to starting on the second leg of its march to Washington.

When Coxey left his home in Massillon, O., it was found that only a small percentage of the followers he had counted on were in line. However, the ranks were swelled by Massillon school boys and when "General" and Mrs. Coxey climbed into Coxey's old phaeton and the "general" gave the signal for the start by clucking to the old mule which drew the phaeton he had a fairly large command.

The marchers found the roads between Massillon and Canton bad. Squad after squad dropped out, and when the "army" finally reached Canton only a handful of privates backed up "General" Coxey.

MELLEN MAY HEAD
RAILWAY EMPLOYESPlan on Foot to Form Great Central Body.

Boston, April 17.—Charles S. Mellen, formerly president of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad company, may become the active head of a federated body supreme among the various organizations of the United States with which 2,000,000 railroad employees are affiliated.

It became known that Mr. Mellen had been approached and that he was giving favorable consideration. The new organization, to be known as the Federated Council of Railroad Brotherhoods, will be formed at a meeting of delegates in this city on April 26.

The idea of the council has been promoted by the Order of Railroad Station Agents, which met here in January and appointed a committee to invite the many independent societies of railroad men to send delegations to the forthcoming meeting.

At present there is no central body in this country and the organization will be along the line of the English and German federations. Harry Phillips, deputy lord mayor of Westham, Eng., and associate secretary of the Federated Transportation Workers of England, will aid in the organization. The council will represent all branches of the service, including conductors, engineers, with brakemen, station agents, freight handlers, telegraph operators, signal men and track walkers.

TWO FALL FROM BRIDGES

Minneapolis Men Meet Death in Similar Manner.

Minneapolis, April 17.—Two men drowned after falls from bridges spanning the Mississippi in Minneapolis' record for one day.

Less than twelve hours after John Gregory fell from the Great Northern railroad bridge and was drowned the police received word of the similar death of an unidentified man who fell from the Plymouth avenue bridge.

The man, who was about forty-five years old, appeared to be a workman homeward bound.

Bill Introduced in House Aimed to Benefit Stock Raisers.

Washington, April 17.—A bill to provide for the opening for homestead entry of "stock raising lands," in the public domain was reported to the house.

The measure would authorize the secretary of the interior to designate as subject to entry in tracts of not more than 640 acres, "lands, the surface of which is, in his opinion, chiefly valuable for grazing or raising of forage crops."

Entrants to perfect title would be required to make permanent improvements.

Lemmon, S. D., April 17.—Special Officers G. F. Cook of St. Paul and P. J. Lavalle of Butte, Mont., representing the Great Northern railroad, arrived here and after carefully comparing the description of Harry Mathews as furnished by the Deer Lodge penitentiary with that of the dead bandit killed here Monday evening decided that the man was not Mathews.

Mathews had a gold filling in one of his upper front teeth; the body has not. A large scar marks the top of the instep of the right foot of the man killed; Mathews' description does not mention it.

Adds to Splendid Words of American Naval Heroes.

TYPICAL TERSE STATEMENT

As the Warships Steamed Out of Hampton Roads for Mexican Waters Admiral Badger's Only Comment Was, "We Do Not Know What We Will Be Called Upon to Do, but We Are Ready."

New York, April 17.—"We do not know what we will be called upon to do, but we are ready."

This, the only statement Rear Admiral Charles J. Badger, commander-in-chief of the Atlantic fleet, had to make as his ships steamed out of Hampton Roads for Mexico, was made public here by Secretary Daniels to be added to the splendid words by American naval heroes.

An appeal for popular support of the navy was voiced by the secretary at the Naval league banquet.

"It is my firm belief," he said, "that no definite program of naval construction by that I mean a program that will not be in jeopardy every time congress assemblies—can be laid down until an overwhelming majority of our people become friends of the navy."

The secretary remarked that John Lind called to tell him that the officers and men of the navy are the finest body of men he has ever known and that Rear Admiral Fletcher is a "wise man, of sound judgment and better than that, he is a patriot, loyal to the core to his country."

Speaking of his recent order abolishing the wine mess the secretary said:

"With singular lack of logic critics who see fit to represent me as a foe to discipline on the one hand twist this into a case of discipline run mad on the other. Far greater questions than that of discipline lie back of this."

Stockholders Expected to Approve Dissolution Plan.

New York, April 17.—It is virtually certain that the stockholders' meeting of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad company in New Haven next Tuesday will formally ratify the dissolution agreement recently entered into between the company's officers and the department of justice at Washington.

After a meeting of the road's directors held here Chairman Howard Elliott announced that proxies representing 780,000 shares, more than half the outstanding stock, had been received and of these only 382 opposed the plan.

Washington, April 17.—President Wilson was asked by a delegation from the senate and house to request Attorney General McKendall to obtain from the circuit court of appeals at Chicago a stay of execution for the twenty-seven labor leaders sentenced to Fort Leavenworth for complicity in the dynamite conspiracy.

They asked the president to stay the sentences until he had an opportunity to review all the proceedings and the application for pardon. The president promised to give the cases careful consideration.

The destructive critic had his beginning in the Garden of Eden; the devil is the father of them all, being the first to question the Word of God.
God Almighty never put a premium on laziness. God is not going to do anything for any person or church that they can do for themselves.

Many people have more churchian-ity than Christianity.

You wouldn't know many people were Christians if you did not see them going to church on Sunday morning with a face long enough to eat oatmeal out of a churn.

Let a show come to your town and take out $20,000 or $25,000 and no one thinks of its taking "too much money," but let a revival cost a few hundreds and the cry goes up "Too much money."

If the devil doesn't get a lot of you fellows by the carload, it will be because he doesn't want you.

You fellows will go to a baseball game and yell yourself hoarse with enthusiasm and it's all right, but let somebody say "Amen!" in religious service and people are ready to call you daffy.

Men, if your religion is not the chief business of your life, you have the wrong brand. There is something the matter with it.

Many churches are fairly united but the difficulty is they are "frozen" together.

Suppose you hitch up a mule, a goat, a skunk and a wasp, what could you do? Well, every pastor has in his church a kicker, a butter, a stinker and a stinger.

"We work because we are saved and not to be saved."

"I would as soon try to cross Lake Michigan on a peanut shell as to try to get to heaven on morality—I would come just as nearly doing one as the other."

"Many professors have just enough religion to make them downright miserable."

"We have reached a fateful hour for this town, the battle is on, and before the smoke has lifted there will be a Waterloo either for the people of God or the powers of darkness."

"Some of you professing Christians

CITY SCHOOLS ARE INSPECTED

L. V. Conley, Deputy State Fire Marshal, sees if Fire Prevention Laws are Observed

COMPLIMENTS THE SCHOOLS

Refers to Fire Drill of the Pupils—Mentions Proposed Clean up Week of City

L. V. Conley, of St. Paul, deputy state fire marshal, was in the city and inspected the schools to see if all fire prevention laws of the state were faithfully observed.

He visited the Washington, Lowell and Harrison schools yesterday and had nothing but words of praise for the manner in which the schools of the city in general observed the laws. He complimented Supt. W. C. Cobb and the various teachers for the excellence of the fire drills of the pupils. Mr. Conley observed that the Washington school had a record of marching every pupil out of the building in one and a half minutes.

The deputy state fire marshal inspected fire escapes, also fire hose in the buildings and looked into all the basements, and these basements, said Mr. Conley, were remarkably clean.

"The schools of Brainerd are in very good shape," said Mr. Conley. They excel a good many of the schools I have visited in other places." A fire case in Northeast Brainerd was examined into and data secured. The proposed "Clean Up Week" in Brainerd was favorably commented on by Mr. Conley, who said it was especially pleasing to see the city itself set the first example by cleaning its streets and alleys.

To play the drums at a moving picture theatre while the deputy sheriff sat seven seats away to arrest him when the performance was over is the experience of Clarence Carlson, of a local theatre.

Today a deputy from Fergus Falls took Carlson along to face the charge. 265 charges.

IMMIGRATION TO NORTH COUNTRY

Minnesota & International and Northern Pacific Railways Transporting Homeseekers

MANY FROM IOWA & WISCONSIN

Emigrants' Movables, Horses and Cows Accompany Families—All Bonafide Settlers

The Dispatch recently inaugurated the plan of publishing records supplied by the Minnesota & International railway showing the tide of immigration to the railway's territory in Northern Minnesota. These reports covering seven to ten days each are of a most satisfactory nature and show that a stream of bonafide settlers is now radiating into Northern Minnesota bent on making their homes here and becoming part and parcel of one of the best states in the union.

On April 3 there was shipped a car of emigrants' movables and household goods from Ottawa, Kansas, to Kelliher.

On April 10 a car containing five horses was shipped from Hastings to Pequot.

On April 11 settlers' movables and stock was shipped from Maiden Rock, Wis., to Hackensack.

On April 12 emigrants' movables were shipped from Marshalltown, Iowa, to Hackensack and a car loaded with seven horses and three cows from Rapidan to Laporte.

These records may not prove very exciting and seem very commonplace episodes, but nevertheless they are part of the great movement which shows that Northern Minnesota is coming to its own, that the advantages of climate and soil, the opportunities for gaining home and a competence are appealing to the people of Iowa, Wisconsin, Kansas and other states and that going to Minnesota for a farm will soon have greater significance than making a mad rush across the boundary. Minnesota and especially Northern Minnesota welcomes "Our People" to our state.

THIRD ANNIVERSARY

Services at Congregational Church Marking Third Anniversary of Rev. Sheridan's Pastorate

This Sunday will make the third anniversary of Rev. G. P. Sheridan's ministry at the First Congregational church and a special service will be held at 10:30. Baptism, reception of new members and the Lord's supper will be administered. Mr. Sheridan will preach on the subject, "Progressive Christianity."

A choir composed of Mrs. LaBar, Mrs. Albright, Mrs. Elder, Mrs. Hoffman, Mr. Alderman and Mr. Webb will sing Wilson's "O Magnify the Lord." During the opening exercises of the Bible school Mrs. Albright and Mrs. Hoffman will sing a duet. Everybody is cordially invited to these services.

There will be special music and sermons appropriate to the occasion, and in the morning reception of new members.

The year just closed has been particularly successful, marking as it does the completion of the parsonage and a widened interest in all the church activities. There has been a steady growth in the membership of the church and a marked increase of attendance at its services.

One feature of Mr. Sheridan's pastorate which deserves special mention is his successful work with young people. Under his direction the graded lesson system has been installed in the Sunday school and its membership more than doubled. No one can fail to be impressed with the large number of young people to be seen in Mr. Sheridan's congregations.

During the three years that Mr. Sheridan has been here he has won a high place not only in the hearts of his own congregation but in the community as well.

LARGEST CROWD SINCE SUNDAY

Came to the Tabernacle Last Night and Listened to Thoughtful and Impassioned Plea For

BIBLE AS THE WORD OF GOD

France Ruled Against Bible, in One Year Took Out of Sewers 10,000 Dead Infants

The largest crowd since Sunday's meeting, came to the tabernacle last night to hear Evangelist Lowry speak on "The Book of Books. Is the Bible the Word of God?"

It was a thoughtful, yet impassioned plea for the Bible as the word of God. "The Bible does not contain the word of God but 'is' the word of God," said he. For an hour he dwelt upon this greatest of all books. The book that is at the same time hated by more people and loved by more than any other book ever written.

Mr. Moody caught the people by having them whistle the "Battle Hymn of the Republic." Men and women caught the spirit and returned their whistling days. By the way those were happy days when viewed from this safe distance. The unique, musical feat caused a new alignment of physiognomies that was interesting to behold.

The theme of the evening sermon tonight will be "The Greatest Business on Earth." A silver offering will be made. The money is coming in slowly. The expenses must be met. They are considerable. On Sunday afternoon the subject will be "Tithing."

"There was a shop meeting at noon. Others will be conducted from time to time.

The text was from Isaiah 40:8: "The grass withereth the flower fadeth but the word of our God will stand forever." Matthew 24:25: "Heaven and earth shall pass away but my word shall not pass away." Rev. Lowry spoke at times with dramatic power that added telling effect to his presentation of the truth. He said: "Bring me a book" said Sir Walter Scott, when on his dying bed. "What book," said Lockhart. "The book, the Bible, there is only one book." I come to talk to you tonight about a book. Men have tried to destroy it but still it stands. It has outlived every attempt at destruction. "The grass withereth, the flower fadeth, but the word of our God shall stand forever."

The nations that have put a ban upon the Bible have been plunged into darkness and heathenism. France ruled against the Bible. One year France took out from her sewers 10,000 dead infants. Murder of children, immorality, and vice of every kind are the consequences where there is no Bible.

In many families the Bible is a lost book. The rubbish of society and worldly pleasures have hidden it. It has been crowded out of the lives of many individuals by the latest novels, magazines or Sunday papers.

Can we be sure that the Bible is the word of God? You are asking an important question. For this book is the only one that tells us whether we are going and from whence we came.

First, the Bible writers claim to be inspired. 2 Peter 1:21, "For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of men; but holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Ghost." Many other passages might be quoted having this same idea—the inspiration of the Holy Scriptures. The Bible does not claim to "contain" the word of God but "is" the word of God.

The minister who does not stand by this is false to his ordination vows. If the Bible writers are not inspired they are a pack of liars. You cannot find a moral teaching in the world today that does not have its root in the Bible.

The construction of the Book affirms its claim to Divine origin. The Bible contains sixty-six books composed by at least forty different authors covering a period of sixteen centuries.

These writers lived under different forms of government and were from all classes of society from the king on his throne to the shepherd and the fisherman. They knew nothing about one another, in many instances yet there is practical harmony in all their teaching. From Genesis to Revelation there is practical harmony and unity.

There is only one way to account for such unity and that is back of these various writers was the master mind of God.

The testimony of Jesus Christ compels us to accept the Bible as the word of God. In Mark 7:13 Jesus calls the law of Moses "the word of God." In Luke 24, He sets his seal of approval upon "the law the prophets, and the Psalms." These are the three divisions of the Bible according to the Jewish reckoning.

How about the New Testament? Jesus approved that also by way of anticipation. John 14:26: "The Holy Ghost shall teach you all things whatsoever I have said unto you." The apostles might forget. The Holy Spirit would not forget.

He goes still further and says, John 16:22-24: "I have yet many things to say unto you. When He, the Spirit of Truth, is come He shall guide you into all truth." Here Jesus affirms that not only would the teaching of the apostles be correct, but that it would be more complete than His own teaching.

Fulfilled prophecy is one of the greatest witnesses to the Bible as the Word of God. There are 333 prophecies in the Old Testament regarding Christ. Every one relating to His earthly life have been fulfilled. Some of these are: "The seed of the woman shall bruise the serpent's head," "Behold a virgin shall conceive and bear a son," where Jesus

'COMING HOME' TONIGHT

John Sprague, a young country minister, wins the love and marries a simple country girl altho her father does not favor the match. The young minister then is moved to the city and is rector of a fashionable church. Time passes and with success for both. Then financial trouble. The young wife desires to help her husband and remembers her success as an amateur performer decides to obtain a position on the stage. She secures a place but keeps it a secret from her husband. He finds it out and there is a misunderstanding. Sprague finally in the end shows his wife that financial troubles are greater than forsaking her home. This is a strong two-reel drama.

This was foretold. Babylon is a place where the Arabian will not pitch his tent till this day. All predicted.

The Bible goes back to creation and tells us that man came from the garden of Eden and not from a zoological garden. Science makes many guesses regarding the origin of man, the Bible does not have to resort to guess work. It knows. God created man in His own image. "In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth."

Upon every point of science the Bible deals with it is up-to-date. Job said, "God hangs the world upon nothing." Columbus said, "If the world is hung upon nothing I can sail around it." The discovery of America was due to this passage in the word of God.

Again the Bible says, "The stars cannot be numbered." A certain French infidel said "I am going to disprove that by numbering the stars." He counted three thousand, and thought he had completed the task. Telescopes today reveal 380,000,000 stars and only a beginning has been made in the count. The stars cannot be numbered.

Modern discoveries are all validating the testimony of Scripture. Voltaire said "It took twelve fishermen to found Christianity. I will show that one Frenchman can overthrow it. Voltaire is dead. The Bible lives on. Science changes, philosophies are born and die, but the word of God suffers no change, for it is the perfect revelation of God to man.

It has been translated into five hundred languages and dialects. More Bibles are published than any other one hundred books.

A traveler in one of the Sandwich Islands (at one time the inhabitants were cannibals) came on to a native that was reading the Bible. He said, "What are you reading that book for we have given it up long ago in my country?" The native responded, "It's a good thing we haven't given it up here or you would have been roasted and eaten before you got this far."

The book reveals a Saviour who walked among us; who gave life for us; who will redeem out of every nation those who call upon Him. It reveals the way of salvation.

NOTICE OF FORECLOSURE

Whereas, default has been made in the conditions of a certain mortgage dated October 7th, 1911 and filed for registration in the office of the Registrar of Titles of Crow Wing county, Minnesota, November 15th, 1911 at 4 o'clock P. M., and registered as document number 623, and was executed and delivered by Axel Larsen, unmarried, of Duluth in St. Louis county, Minnesota to John Duncan of Snodgrass, Washington, on which mortgage there is claimed to be due at the date of this notice, the sum of twenty-eight hundred and thirteen and no/100 ($2813.00) dollars.

Now Therefore, notice is hereby given that under a power of sale contained in the said mortgage and pursuant to the statutes in such case made and provided, said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of said mortgaged premises, by the Sheriff of Crow Wing county, Minnesota at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash, at the front door of the Court House, in the City of Brainerd, Minnesota on the 15th day of May, 1914, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, to satisfy said mortgage and costs and expenses of the sale including fifty and no/100 ($50.00) dollars attorneys fees as stipulated in said mortgage.

The premises described in said mortgage, and to be sold are situated in Crow Wing county, Minnesota, and described as follows, to-wit: The west one-half of the northwest quarter (1/4) and the south one half of the southwest quarter (1/4) of section twenty-three (23) in township one hundred and thirty-six (136) north of range twenty-six (26) west of the fifth principal meridian in Minnesota.

Dated March 27, 1914. JOHN DUNCAN, Mortgagee.

CLIFTON A. ALLBRIGHT, Attorney for Mortgagee. M 27-61

Here Is Good News for Stomach Victims

Some very remarkable results are being obtained by treating stomach, liver and intestinal troubles with pure vegetable oils, which exert a cleansing, soothing and purifying action upon the lower bowels, removing the obstructions of poisonous fecal matter and gases and preventing their absorption by the blood. This done, the food is allowed free passage from the stomach, fermentation ceases and stomach troubles quickly disappear.

George H. Mayr, for twenty years a leading Chicago druggist, cured himself and many of his friends of stomach, liver and intestinal troubles of years' standing by this treatment, and so successful was the remedy he devised that it has since been placed in the hands of druggists all over the country, who have sold thousands of bottles.

Though absolutely harmless, the effect of the medicine is sufficient to convince any one of its remarkable effectiveness, and within 24 hours the sufferer feels like a new person. Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy is now sold here by
